NRA Wins Lawsuit in Washington State, Prevents I-1639 From Appearing on Ballot

From NRA-ILA

Fairfax, Va.—The Thurston County Superior Court ruled in favor of the National Rifle Association and ordered a writ of mandamus to prevent I-1639 from appearing on the ballot. The judge agreed the signature sheets did not comply with state law – the font size was too small to be readable and didn't include strikethroughs.

"The National Rifle Association is glad to see the court today recognized how negligent, if not worse, gun control advocates were in their signature-gathering for this ill-advised ballot initiative," said Chris W. Cox, executive director, NRA-ILA. "We got involved because I-1639 tramples on the rights of Washington state voters, and because the way these anti-gun activists went about pushing their agenda was egregious. We applaud this decision, and will remain vigilant in protecting the constitutional freedoms of all Americans."

Among other things, I-1639;

- Creates a gun registry for any transfers of commonly owned semi-automatic rifles;
- Introduces a 10-business day waiting period on the purchase of semi-automatic rifles;
- Imposes criminal liability on otherwise law-abiding gun owners who fail to store their firearms to state standards;
- Increases the age limit to possess or purchase semi-automatic rifles from 18 to 21;
- Mandates training prior to purchase;
- And authorizes a $25 fee to be assessed to semiautomatic rifle purchasers.

The initiative proponents will likely appeal the decision to the state Supreme Court and we will continue to advocate on behalf of our law-abiding members in the Evergreen state.

Don't forget the Brunch Bunch!

By Fred Nachbar

Don't forget the Brunch Bunch meets on Monday mornings, all members are welcome! Since Monday can be the most dreaded day of the week....why not change it up and try something new?

The Brunch Bunch meets every Monday morning at the range at 9 am and then after about an hour or so, they head to a local restaurant for brunch!

Weekly participation varies, but it has grown from the original three people back in Feb 2015, to as many as 20+ people who may come to enjoy the camaraderie at the range and a yummy meal afterwards.

While the time at the range is informal, the ever present RSO's make sure that everyone follows safe practices. The RSOs will stop and clear the line if they feel there is a problem or someone is not following the rules.

Hope to see you there!

Volunteer News

By Lynn Ludeman

As always, we are always happy to have Members who are willing to help sell raffle tickets and/or write articles for the club newsletter.

The Jr Program to begin again, please consider helping with the program! We are still looking for certified Range Safety Officers to volunteer during our programs and events. If you are interested in helping the club in this way but are not trained as an RSO, we've got a class coming up in November, contact training@masoncountysa.com to find out more details. Please contact Lynn Ludeman for more information. 206.406.3562 or secretary@masoncountysa.com.

And speaking of training, the Washington State Patrol Academy has some opportunities for us to help out as actors as their cadets practice what they've been taught. Here is the schedule and contact information for Sergeant Paul Cagle. Just remember to turn in your green sheet if you do some volunteering there, and Please Note that MCSA will honor only 10 hours of your volunteer time there toward your MCSA membership obligation.

Sergeant Cagle says: I have listed the dates and times below in hopes that some of you may have some time to volunteer and be actors for the variety of scenarios we have for this class. I know many of you have helped in the past and I cannot tell you how valuable it is to have individuals the cadets do not know act in the various roles. I hope you all know how much we at the Washington State Patrol appreciate your help!

If you can help in any of the practical's, please email me or give me a call and I will add you to the roster. Approximately a week before each practical is due to start, I will send out a reminder and provide any additional details if needed.
